Rep. Fischer is a Maplewood resident with deep roots in community service. He graduated from Century College and the University of St. Thomas, and serves as a cantor at his church. He and his wife have three children. Peter works as the CFO for Face to Face which serves young people experiencing homelessness or at risk of becoming homeless in Ramsey County. As a CFO, Peter has vast experience with solving budgetary challenges. He is a strong Maplewood advocate of protecting our environment, supporting education and job training opportunities for our youth, and giving everyone a fair chance for a brighter future.

Sen. Wiger, Maplewood, is a lifelong district resident. He attended area schools, served on the school board, and coached youth athletics for 25 years. Chuck has five children and five grandchildren. He earned numerous Legislator of the Year awards and recognition from groups representing our schools, the environment, social justice, labor, businesses, and health care. He is an attorney who graduated from Hamline (JD,BA) and recently retired from Securian. Chuck is a vigorous advocate for Maplewood and his priorities include education, jobs, public safety, the environment, parks, and open space.
